Annexure P

PRIVATE WORK POLICY

Any employment other than the contractual obligations binding the employer and the employee should be regarded as private work.

Any private employment is forbidden unless Council's consent is given in writing.

Employees are expected at all times during normal working hours, to devote their attention to the carrying out of their duties, unless prior consent has been obtained from Council to the contrary.